Announcements / Comments

Question #149 for conversation: Do you have any family members who are also amateur radio operators? What do the non-ham family members think of your hobby?

(If interested in submitting a weekly question, email n5zkf@arrl.net)

Matthew Barry (KG5LYE)

- Dad and I are the only hams in the family
- Everyone else has other hobbies and are quite busy
- They are all capable of learning, but they just aren't too interested, and just not a great fit for them
 - Would be willing to learn if the need arose
- Other family members tend to be a bit quieter

David Bailey (K5DKB)

- My wife has humored my by getting her license
- No one else

Closing Remarks

- Kevin Walton (K5BTX) is online on NetLogger and sends his regards!
